VISAGE OF ZINDAGI

It is not just the way a dress is made but the way it is worn. It is not just the fabric but the way it is used. It is not just the color but the way it is used. It is not just the design but the way it is used. It is not just the style but the way it is used. It is not just the fashion but the way it is used. It is not just the trend but the way it is used. It is not just the look but the way it is used. It is not just the feel but the way it is used. It is not just the sound but the way it is used. It is not just the taste but the way it is used. It is not just the smell but the way it is used. It is not just the touch but the way it is used. It is not just the sight but the way it is used. It is not just the sound but the way it is used. It is not just the taste but the way it is used. It is not just the smell but the way it is used. It is not just the touch but the way it is used. It is not just the sight but the way it is used.
