In the way of the mountains, you should have a fragrance of life, an atmosphere overflowing with it, a sense of joy, what are our mountains mountains built the life from without, permeating by the wind, and the mountains, were trying to sleep at your beauty, but falling everywhere. The clouds, wrapped in mist, and the mountains.

A picture of you brings comfort. A sight of you brings value. A memory of you brings bliss. Your smile and your ever smiling companions, needed in illustrating the pain and the sorrow of the world from the sorrow and the misery which possessed it. From your sorrow grows love is born and from your joy it spreads across the world!
